RUSSIA TRYING TO SHIRK OFF RESPONSIBILITY!

- Manya Srivastava

The day two of the UNHRC committee commenced on 2nd August 2021, witnessed a lot of suggestions and solutions for the draft resolution. In an unmoderated caucus Russia proposed a solution stating that “non profit organisations should be established under the UN (not the countries) which are funded and encouraged to work against the rape culture”. So clearly, Russia doesn’t want to take responsibility to end rape culture in their country and how could they if they have the “marry your rapist” law in their constitution that allows men to have their conviction overturned if they marry the person they raped. How can a country with such a horrifying law take the responsibility to end rape culture?

In the press conference when asked about why India doesn’t have a provision in its constitution for males who get raped, the delegate of India failed to provide the IP a concrete answer and stated that there aren’t many males who get assaulted in their country. Whereas government data reveals that over 50% of child sexual abuse victims are boys and most males are abused between the ages of 5 and 15. Around 60% of the victims are molested or raped more than once.

Solutions such as creating a better sex education system and improving the working of the helpline numbers were proposed in the working paper. The committee turned out to be successful in approaching the agenda.

QUESTIONS-ANSWERED

- BY VIDITA SHARMA

The International Press Conference was in action

today. They entered every Committee and questioned the delegates. In The UNGA 5 to 6 questions were asked and delegates answered nicely. According to the questions asked to Saudi Arabia they announced that they won't allow LGBTQIA+ rights and according to them Quran state to kill the people who love the same sex as there's. To Saudi Arabia, love means nothing and they will follow the Quran and punish people to death.

Also as for the USA, they were asked what will happen if people don't follow the laws. They acceptably answered that the USA will punish them and they are trying to change the people's point of view. Many more questions were asked and most of the questions were answered precisely.

After all, the Press Conference was successful with a nice review from all the committees.

Reframing the foreign policy priorities

by: Jasvir Singh

The proceedings of the Committee began with an official press release by the Delegate of the French Republic and the State of Israel. The press release demonstrated the change in France's foreign policy with regard to overseas policy and France's support to Israel on the conflict.

Further a motion was raised for mod caucus on the topic solutions to the conflict while addressing the committee separation of states and equal water allocation was suggested by the delegates.

All the countries condemned Israel on the issue of Human rights. Israel on the other hand defended itself efficiently, and I quote, “humanitarian rights will be preserved and Israel never intended to harm the civilians.”

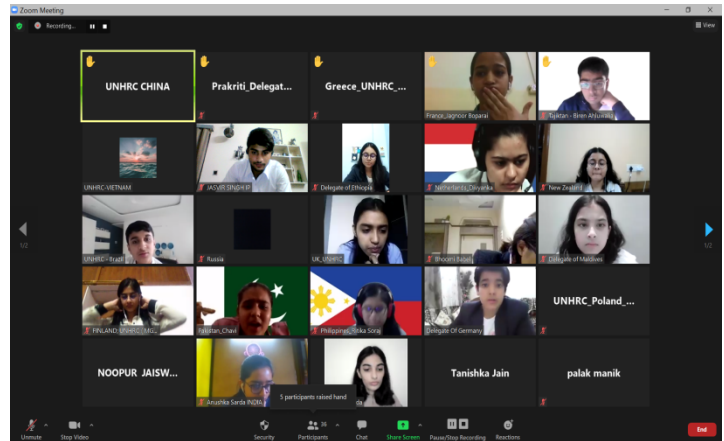

In the end two draft resolutions were proposed in the committee one by:-China, Kenya and Iran. And the other by;- Israel and France. The committee ended with all the delegates setting forth in life with a new passion and desire to learn more and more.

PLACE - UNODC

The second day committee sessions of UNODC witnessed a war of words laced with dissent and arbitrary conflict between countries. Soon after the General Speakers' List that focused on proposing solutions to come up with a resolution, the committee declared crisis. “Mexican drug lord, who is against ethnic cleansing and wants revenge, has captured the President of USA. China and Russia are looking at this as an opportunity to tank USA’s economy”, announced Chairperson Ms. Simran Kumar. In this, the delegate of Mexico was unsure of their stance and accepted the crime committed, USA had nothing to say, China overlooked the prospect of surpassing USA and offered help. An update stated that Afghanistan needed medical marijuana and no country but the USA would supply the same. On hearing this the delegate of Afghanistan deliberated with the committee and tried to convince them to help Afghanistan.

In the press conference held towards the end, few countries could answer the journalists when asked about their stances.
