

IPSC MSMUN 2022

CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Timings

- All the delegates are expected to maintain discipline during the span of conference.
- Kindly follow the itinerary and be punctual for all the events.

2. Dress Code

All delegates are requested to be decorously attired.

All the delegates must follow the dress code:

Western formals- First and third day

Traditional- Second day

- The delegates will be provided with ID cards and it is mandatory to wear these ID cards during the conference.

3. Things to remember

Our conference is dedicated to provide an equal part fun and learning experience for everyone.

- Discrimination of any kind on the basis of ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, belief, religion, age or disability by anyone in the conference is not permissible.
- Respectful and formal language to be used during the three days of MUN.
- The conference strictly discourages actions or derogatory signaling.
- No use of music or other audio recordings during the sessions. No use of graphics (photos, clip art or drawings) at any time, unless approved in advanced by an MSMUN Adviser or Chair.
- It is the responsibility of all participants to know and abide by the laws of the state which govern their internet use and general conduct.
- If any delegate will be held accountable for any disruptive behavior during the committee sessions will be expelled from the conference without any refund at the discretion of the secretariat.
- In the school campus if any delegate or faculty advisors found with ANY ILLEGAL MATERIAL for ex., alcoholic substances will be expelled from IPSC MSMUN 2022.

- All the delegates who will avail the facility of accommodation inside the campus to stick with the time schedule that is mentioned in the itinerary.
- All the faculty advisors are responsible for safety, discipline and conduct of their students.
- Faculty advisors can observe their students and conference from back of the committee rooms.

We hope all the participants of the conference will strictly adhere to the code of conduct.

We are eagerly waiting for enthusiastic and diligent delegates to attend this IPSC MUN conference for positive changes with effective results.

Warm Regards
Mody School MUN Team

